

Closing gifts that actually close

A native HubSpot workflow action that issues a swag credit when a deal hits closed-won. The client picks their own gift; the brand impression sticks.

WHO WE ARE

Swag Dimension is the modern, multi-tenant SaaS platform for organizations that want to run permanent brand-ed-merch stores without inventory, minimums, or third-party storefront management. Our customers include nonprofits, schools, real-estate brokerages, churches, fitness studios, and corporate HR teams across the US.
